Thought for the day

Prayers and Prayer Pointers For This Week

Monday 5th October - Today is World Teachers Day. Why not use this prayer time to call to mind the teachers known to you, or remember those who have taught you valuable lessons along the way. - Call their names in prayer and, if it is appropriate, you might like to message someone who you pray for to let them know they have been in your prayers today.

Tuesday 6th October - Hold a moment of stillness at some point during the day. You might like to spend a moment noticing the pain you carry – emotional, physical, spiritual...In the stillness, invite God to come close, to comfort your pains, not particularly because you expect them to disappear, but because it is reassuring to have someone holding our hand when we suffer. - Be near me, Lord Jesus, this and every day, Amen.

Wednesday 7th October - Come, Holy Spirit, Into this town, this village, this community, Into my home, my relationships, my life. - Come, bring light in the darkness, I pray. Amen.

Thursday 8th October - What injustices make you angry in the world? Consider the ways you see God as a God of justice and pray that God will work through those injustices.

Friday 9th October - You might like to make a cup or tea or coffee, or something else to drink. As you drink it, imagine all the places and people that are responsible for making it, from source to your lips. Thank God for them, the source of all life.

Saturday 10th October - Today is World Mental Health Day. - You might like to pray for all those impacted by the challenges of mental ill health, which is basically all of us at different times of life and in different relationships. - Today, you might like to pray for calm, for peace, for clarity, for hope, for happiness. - Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.
